

'Cor ad cor loquitur'

Portrait of St John Henry Newman in 1844, painted by George Richmond

The Newman Society promotes the Catholic Faith in the University of Oxford. In 1878, Oxford's Catholics established the Society as a means of renewing the Church's life in the University. Since then, the Society has continued this mission, working alongside the Catholic Chaplaincy and other local churches.

This special edition of the Newman Society term card was made in celebration of Our Cardinal and Patron, St. John Henry Newman, being declared Doctor of the Church on 1st November 2025.

'Cor ad cor loquitur'

'Heart speaks unto Heart'

The Society meets at 18:30 on Thursdays at the Oxford University Catholic Chaplaincy for a communal recitation of the Most Holy Rosary. Then follows a dinner and an address from a guest speaker; our guest speakers cover a wide range of topical issues over the course of the term. After, we have a period of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, then Solemn Benediction and Compline, followed by some social time over a drink at the Newman Bar. All members of the University are welcome, whether Catholic or otherwise!
